MOB GETS NEGRO; NEARLY HANGS MAYOR

Omaha Court House Fired, Records Burned, Business Section Wrecked.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 29. — After a night of mob rule during which a negro was lynched, an attempt made to hang the mayor of Omaha, Edward P. Smith, the county courthouse burned, one man said to be an ex-soldier shot and killed and perhaps forty others injured, the city was quiet today under patrol of federal troops ordered from Fort Omaha and Fort Crook.

MAYOR STILL UNCONSCIOUS

The mayor is at a hospital and was still unconscious early today as a result of the attempt made by the mob to hang him to a trolley pole because he advised against the lynching of William Brown, a negro, who was in the county jail charged with attacking a white girl on the outskirts of the city early last week.

BUSINESS SECTION WRECKED

With returning dawn today Omaha's downtown section looked well nigh a wreck as the result of the rioting. Practically all the known casualties that were not fatal, resulted from shooting. Thousands of shots were fired from numerous kinds of weapons, all discharged in the open with thousands of people on the streets.

INJURED

Among those injured were a dozen police officers, three prisoners in the county jail, several city firemen and numerous pedestrians.

Today the doings of last night at the courthouse began to clear up. Until long after the early morning hours it was practically impossible to get near that structure. The mob that held sway over the building for five hours made it dangerous to go near the structure. Later on, when a detachment of federal soldiers were sent to the scene a cordon was at once drawn around the building and nobody permitted to approach it.

PRISONERS GAVE UP NEGRO

Details of how the negro finally came into the hands of the mob were still lacking to some extent today. When the mob gained entrance to the jail and a fire in the building became menacing to 100 prisoners in jail on the top floor, Sheriff Clark sent all the prisoners, including Brown, to the roof. He was there in the custody of the other prisoners. The sheriff and his deputies were guarding the entrance to the jail and were able to keep back the mob for several hours. However, as the heat became intense, the prisoners themselves took action and delivered the negro to the mob.

CROWDS SEIZES MAYOR

The crowds that began to gather early in the evening were augmented from time to time until it was numbered by the thousands. It was during this time that the mayor came so near being himself a victim of the mob.

Mayor Smith was seized by the mob on Seventeenth street, near the courthouse at 10 o'clock and was threatened with lynching. He was hustled to Harney street and stopped at the foot of a trolley pole on the cross arm of which was a coil of rope.

MAYOR THREATENED

"Give up the key to the jail"

"If we can't get the nigger we'll lynch you."

"He's no better than the nigger."

"He's a negro lover."

These were some of the cries heard in the mob.

"Get that rope," someone shouted. It was pulled down by a loose end, but was not long enough to reach. A man climbed the pole and with a knife cut the rope. It was brought down and placed around the neck of the mayor.

"Throw is up over the pole and string the mayor up," yelled a dozen voices. The mayor was the center of a rush so great that it almost overturned an automobile standing near.

PROTESTS HEARD.

The rope was then placed around the mayor's neck. Appalled at the possibility of murdering the city's chief executive, protests began to be heard.

"We won't stand for hanging the mayor."

"That won't get us the nigger."

"Let 'im go."

"Tell him to get out of here.

Then two officers cut the rope carried the mayor to an automobile and rushed him to a hospital.

DEFENDING NEGROES.

The mayor's law firm is at present defending two negroes charged with assaults on white women. The police assert that fact had much to do with some of the remarks that were made by members of the mob who had a hand in the attempt against his life.

COURT HOUSE RUINED.

The fire that was started in the court house left that magnificent structure a mass of ruins. The property was valued at a million and a half dollars. The damage to the records could not be estimated early today, but it is believed many have been destroyed beyond reclamation Statistics vital to county affairs since the county was organized are believed to be badly damaged.

CAPTURING NEGRO.

For several hours the lives of more than 100 prisoners in the county jail were endangered by the flames in the lower floors of the building. It was finally necessary to send them all to the roof. Sheriff Clark stood off the angry mob until the flames caused the prisoners themselves to take action. They at first decided among themselves to throw the negro from the roof to the pavement below and leave him to the destruction of the mob. It was at this moment that the mob had gained entrance to the burning building pushed by Sheriff Clark and his deputies and forced their way into the cell corridors. Here is was that the negro was turned over to them.

NEGRO BEFORE MOB.

Throwing a rope around his neck these men, numbering about fifty dragged him to the ground floor down stifling stairways and through blinding smoke to the street. When they appeared at the Harney street entrance to the court house they were greeted by a howling mob of thousands.

Brown was practically dead before his form was ever hung to the light pole. Two bullets were fired into his body as he was dragged through the crowd. He was never heard to utter a word and he was never given an opportunity to speak before being stretched full length before the gaze of thousands.

MUTILATED.

Brown's body was mutilated beyond recognition. Riddled by a thousand bullets, it was first placed over a fire of tarred faggots. It was not permited to remain there long, however, and was soon being dragged through the streets at the end of a rope pulled by fifty members of the mob. This spectacle did not end until late in the morning hours, when what remained of the torso was hung to a trolley pole at one of the most important downtown intersections.

SOLDIERS ARRIVE.

The arrival of the soldiers had the effect of sobering the mob considerably and also of dispersing its members. The destruction of the court house came as a result of lack of police protection for the firemen when they attempted to run hose lines. Many of the firemen, however, entered the building and assisted in the work of quieting the prisoners, many of whom had become frantic.

SHERIFF'S STORY.

Sheriff Michael L. Clark today told the story of how Brown finally came into the possession of the mob.

"The deputy sheriffs had orders to hold Brown and they did all in their power to do so," Clark said. "When the flames and smoke crowded us off the fourth floor, Commissioner Ringer, Chief Eberstein, Mayor Smith and some police officers started for the freight elevator. The last men into the elevator were Mayor Smith, Commissioner Ringer and Chief Eberstein.

TURN WOMEN LOOSE.

"The women prisoners were screaming at the top of their voices. We took fifteen women prisoners and released them rather than have them burn like sheep there in their cells. They escaped from the building.

"Later we took the male prisoners out of their cells when it became too hot there and led them to the roof of the building. They were panic-stricken. The colored prisoners seized Brown and tried to push him over the cornice into the crowd below. The white prisoners and deputy sheriffs restrained them.

GIVE BROWN UP.

"I was on my way up a stairway to the roof when a mass of bodies tumbled down over my head and sprawled on the floor beneath me.

"The colored prisoners had bolted by me with Brown in their clutches. They hurried him to the floor below and turned him over to a crowd of thirty or more who had climbed into the window from an extension ladder. That was the last I saw of Brown.

"We had 126 prisoners in the jail Sunday morning. We released fifteen women. Three men prisoners escaped, two were confined for petty offenses and one for burglary."

BROWN'S CRIME.

Omaha, Sept. 29.—The assault with which William Brown was charged was committed on Agnes Lobeck early in the week. With an escort, crippled beyond the point of resistance, Miss Lobeck met her assailant a few blocks from home in the southeast part of the city. He held the couple up at the point of a revolver. After robbing the young man he assaulted her in her escort's presence holding a revolver at the head of the young man in the meantime.

Later Brown was arrested by police officers and taken to the city jail, where both Miss Lobeck and her escort identified him. Later it was stated that Brown had made a confession of his crime. He was taken to the county jail, considered a safe place for his confinement.

INVESTIGATION.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 29.—Immediate investigation in yesterday's race rioting here with a view of starting prosecution of those responsible is to be made, it was announced at the county attorney's office today. The investigation is to start at once in conjunction with the police department, it was said.

Although Omaha was apparently quiet today, authorities feared there might be repetition of the disorders tonight, and every precaution was to be taken to prevent a fresh outbreak of rioting. Additional troops from Camp Dodge were to arrive today to augment the forces already here, and more soldiers were scheduled to come later from Camp Grant, Illinois. General Leonard A. Wood of the central department of the army, is expected here this evening.

Latest reports of the rioting estimate the number of injured all the way from 45 to 60. Only two persons were killed, however. These were William Brown, negro, who was taken from the county jail and lynched, and a white man believed to be Clarence Clancy, aged 28, of Omaha.

NO ARRESTS MADE

At police headquarters it was stated that they had not yet arested any of the leaders of the riot, but were making every effort to apprehend them.

500 SPECIAL POLICE

City commissioners today ordered the police commissioner to enroll not less than 500 special police officers. Federal troops from Camp Funston are also scheduled to join with the other forces already here.

BOYS IN MOB

The mob, reports show, was composed for the most part of young men and boys, but the police were powerless to check them. Criticism was heard today that there was a lack of leadership in the organization of the forces combatting the mob.

During all the time the mob was at work at twelve year old boy scout stationed himself at a prominent street intersection and directed traffic. He stayed on the job all night and well into the morning.

MAYOR BETTER

Mayor Smith was making a desperate effort to persuade the mob to refrain from its work when he was taken by its members in their attempt to hang him. When he regained consciousness at the hospital his first question of attendants was: "What did they do with the colored man?" He was not told.

While the mayor was in better condition at noon today than last night, he was unable to give a coherent story of the mob's attack on him. He had been on the roof of the courthouse and had just come down to ask the mob to obey the law when he was seized. During the attack he lost his watch but he is to receive another tomorrow, his birthday anniversary, as a gift from his wife and daughter.

CAMP GRANT TROOPS GO.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Following receipts of orders from Major-General Leonard Wood, commanding the central department of the United States army, two companies of infantry left Camp Grant, Rockford, today for Omaha, Neb., to reinforce the troops from Forts Omaha and Crook, who are patrolling the city following the riot of last night. London, Sept. 29.—Improvement in the situation created by the general strike on the British railways was announced in official quarters this morning. The distribution of food was being carried out without friction and volnnteer help was being freely offered, it was stated.

HAD DULL DAY

With railway traffic gone and a great curtailment of trolley and street car facilities in the larger cities, most of the population of Great Britain had nothing to do but stay at home Sunday. Even the usual Sunday rush of motors along the country roads was missing because car owners generally were saving petrol against the expected famine.

London was oppressed with funereal quiet.

PASSENGERS HELD

There were no demonstrations by the strikers against the official forces. Incoming steamers filled with passengers are constantly arriving, and most of the passengers were unable to get to their destinations. Some of the companies have managed to distribute part of their passengers by motors. Several hundred, who have arrived at Dover, from Belgium, are sleeping aboard the steamers. The passengers who got ashore had to handle their own baggage.

LONDON TO PARIS BY AIR

Paris, Sept. 29.—Commencing at noon today a daily aerial mail service will be operated between Paris and London because of the British railroad strike, which has interrupted mails to and from the continent. ITALY HELPS.

WILSON RESTLESS

Washington, Sept. 29. — President Wilson spent a restless night last night, but is sleeping this morning, Rear Admiral Grayson, his personal physician, announced today.

The president arose shortly after 11 o'clock, but remained in his room. He was said to be apparently somewhat refreshed after his sleep.

SOME BETTER.

In a bulletin issued last night, Dr. Grayson, the president's physician said Mr. Wilson "had a fairly comfortable day." After a short motor ride during the afternoon in the open air, which was thought beneficial as a contrast to the days spent on the train during his trip, the president went to bed early.

RECOVERING.

To all outward appearances the president is on the road to recovery from the nervous exhaustion which interrupted his speaking trip for the peace treaty.

NO ENGAGEMENTS.

All of Mr. Wilson's engagements for the near future have been cancelled, and his physician will insist upon a real vacation. No definite decision has been reached whether he will remain in seclusion at the White House or go to some rest resort, but the indications tonight were that the President would not leave the capital soon.

FREE FIGHT IN ITALIAN CHAMBER

[By The Associated Press.]

Rome, Sunday, Sept. 28.—Debate in the Chamber of Deputies was interrupted today by a free fight which lasted ten minutes and in which about 100 deputies participated.

The chamber adjourned tonight until Wednesday, when it will decide whether a vote shall be taken on the question of discussing the treaty.

In consequence of the fight in the chamber several challenges to fight duels were announced between deputies and between deputies and journalists.

A prolonged heated discussion preceded the riotous scene. The members of the parliamentary league insisted upon asking the government whether it intended to discuss the treaties before adjournment. Premier Nitti answered that he would first have a vote of confidence and then whatever cabinet should be in power would decide what should be done.

Thereupon members of the parliamentary league invaded the ministers bench shouting and gesticulating.

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE.

Rome, Sunday, Sept. 28.—(Havas)—All the members of the Chamber of Deputies, with the exception of the official Socialists, voted confidence of Premier Nitti in the vote taken in the chamber today. Ten members refraining from voting.

OHIO GUARD TROOPS HELD IN READINESS

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 29.—Ohio national guard troops mobilized at their respective armories last night by order of Governor Cox were today being held in readiness for further instructions. While the reason for assembling the twelve infantry and three auxilary companies was not made public, it is understood that the order was given to keep faith with Governor Cornwell of West Virginia, who feared an "invasion" of his state by striking steel workers from Steubenville and Mingo, who had planned to march today to Weirton, W. Va., to induce steel workers there to quit work.

Word from Steubenville yesterday was to the effect that the proposed march would not materialize.

PARADE CALLED OFF.

Steubenville, Ohio, Sept. 29.—With the proposed parade to Weirton, W. Va., of stel strikers from Steubenville and other nearby Ohio towns called off, the strike situation was quiet here today. The parade was to have been held today in an attempt to organize the workers in the mills of the Weirton Steel company.

TRYING TO OPEN STEEL MILLS

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 29.—The opening of the second week of the steel workers' strike in the Pittsburgh district was marked today by efforts of employers to operate plants full handed and an intensive campaign by a large force of union organizers to extend the walkout to include those men who have remained at work.

Today, proclaimed by both sides as one of crucial test in the great steel strike, opened with the situation still obscure because of conflicting claims. The opposing leaders issued flatly contradictory statements in regard to the proposed strike today of 40,000 workers in the plants of the Bethlehem Steel corporation. The corporation officials claimed that the strike call had been obeyed only by a comparatively insignificant number and that operations in all their mills were continuing. The union chiefs replied with a claim that the huge plant at Bethlehem was completely crippled and that the power house had been forced to close.

Reported conditions in the other great steel centers indicated that the balance was being held fairly equitably between the two opposing sides. On the other hand, there was nothing to support the prediction of the steel company officials that the day would see wholesale desertions in the ranks of the strikers, and on the other hand, there was a definite increase in mill operation.

At Farrell, in the Pittsburgh district, the Carnegie Steel company resumed operation of two blast furnaces.

At Youngstown, where the strikers have so far been successful in completely stopping operations, groups of workers entered a Carnegie company plant, but the superintendent stated operation would not be resumed for the present.

To offset these relatively minor gains the strikers at Cleveland were successful in tying up the docks of the Pennsylvania Railroad company and the Otis Steel company through a sympathetic walkout of ore and coal handlers. As usual at headquarters of both sides the utmost confidence in the final issue of the strike was expressed.

VOTE TO RETURN

While early reports did not indicate to what degree of success either side met, it is known that many workers voted last week to return to the mills today and resume their duties and the employers viewed the situation with optimism.

MORE ORGANIZERS

From strike headquarters came the statement that with the additional organizers brought into the field during the past few days there would be very few desertions and a large number of additions to the strikers' ranks.

Strike leaders watched with interest developments in the walkout of Bethlehem Steel company employes, which went into effect today. They expected that this strike will tie up all Bethlehem plants.

STRIKERS MEETING

Meetings of strikers were held in halls throughout Alleghaney county yesterday under supervision of Sheriff William S. Haddock. Deputies attended the gatherings and no outbreaks were reported. The success with which Sunday's meetings were held prompted strike leaders to announce that many such gatherings would be held in the county this week.

LITTLE AFFECTED.

Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 29.—The Bethlehem plant of the Bethlehem Steel corporation was very little affected this morning by the strike which had been called from Pittsburgh and there was no semblance of disorder at the entrances to the various plants when the shifts changed at 6 o'clock a.m. and again at 7:30 o'clock.

The police took into custody William J. Bohning, secretary of a local union, for prevailing upon employes of the steel company not to go to work.

TEST EXPECTED.

Chicago, Sept. 29—A test of strength between the steel mills and striking workmen was expected to develop today throughout the Chicago district following the announcement that an attempt would be made to put in operation a number of plants which were closed by the strike.

Union leaders put out many additional pickets early in the day with instructions to endeavor to prevent the return of men to the mills.

At Gary, Ind., besides the regular police force and many deputy sheriffs, the six hundred members of a recently organized citizens' league were ready to respond should any serious disturbances arise.

SHOOTING AND ARRESTS.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 29.—One man was shot and slightly wounded and three others arrested when a crowd of young men are alleged to have attacked a deputy sheriff in the Lawrenceville mill district Sunday. None of the men concerned in the affair was a striker, the police say.

Two mass meetings of strikers were held at Homestead in the afternoon and at night, hand bills were distributed asking the men not to return to work on Monday.

Notices were posted throughout Homestead by the Carnegie Steel company, offering $1,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who shot Peter Luke, a loyal worker. Luke was shot Saturday.

MEN STAY AT WORK.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 29. — The strike order of the national organization committee at Pittsburgh, calling out the steel workers of the Bethlehem Steel corporation at 6 a.m today had no effect upon the Sparrows' Point branch of the company according to General Manager W. F. Roberts, of the local plant this morning. Every department of the steel works was running with full forces he said, except the tin plate mill where fifty of the workmen failed to report for work.

Between 5,000, and 6,000 men are employed at the steel plant.

350 BACK AT WORK

Waukegan, Ill., Sept. 29—Three hundred and fifty strikers were reported at work today in the plant of the American Steel and Wire company. This number represents the total who have returned since the beginning of the walkout. One woman was arrested for jeering at the men going to work.

PLANT CRIPPLED

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 29. — Steel strike headquarters today gave out the following telegram from David Williams, in charge of the strike at the Bethlehem plant at Bethlehem, Pa.:

"Bethlehem plant completely crippled by strike. Power plant shut down."

ALL AT WORK

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 29. — Every department of the Steelton plant of the Bethlehem Steel company is operating this morning with but slightly impaired forces. Walter Guyer, secretary to Frank A. Robbins, Jr., general manager, at 7:30 a. m. said.

FULL QUOTAS

Sharon, Pa., Sept. 29—Announcement was made by officials of the Carnegie Steel company that many more men returned to work today that two blast furnaces are in full operation at the South works in Farrell and that the bar and Blooming mills have practically full quotas.

NO ATTEMPT

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 29.—No attempt was made today to resume operations at three large steel plants here which have been idle since last Tuesday.

SNEAK INTO PLANT

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Union officials said that less than fifty new men appeared for work at the Illinois Steel company plant this morning. Twenty workmen gained entrance at one of the gates by appearing with picket badges. Official union pickets thinking they were recruits did not molest them. At a signal the gates were opened and the men went into the plant.

J. M. Rogan, secretary of the amalgamated iron and steel workers, reported that four foremen and one superintendent had joined the strikers today, having appeared at union headquarters and signed the strikers' lists.

The rail mill at the plant was closed today. A few men were at work in the slab mill. Rogan said the total number of workers in the mill, including those who gained entrance by the picket ruse, would not exceed two hundred and fifty.

SOME MILLS RESUME

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 29.—The American Steel and Wire Company announced that the rod mills in its plants at Braddock, Rankin and Farrell resumed operations today. The rod mills were closed last week.

The company's plant at Donora, also closed last week, reported men returning there for work.

In the Cleveland field, the company announced, the nail department of the H. P. works began operations.

The company stated that it had plenty of men in the Chicago district ready to report, but operations will not be attempted until after pay day, which is tomorrow.

Reports from Johnstown, Pa., show no change in conditions there.

The McKeesport Tinplate company at Port Vue, resumed operations in the finishing department with a complete personnel, officials stated.

JOHNSON FAVORED IN SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, Sept. 29—Telegrams commending his stand on the peace treaty and the league of nations covenant, and urging him to keep up a vigorous campaign for his demands concerning reservations, were sent to United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson today, by representatives of banking, labor and mercantile interests and the judiciary here. Coincidentally a proclamation was issued by Mayor James Rolph asking the citizens of San Francisco to welcome Senator Johnson and to "accord him the same attentive hearing that you gave the president."

LEWIS SPEAKS FOR MINERS

Says Assertions of Operators Are Greatly Exaggerated.

Buffalo, Sept. 29.—Acting President Lewis of United Mine Workers replied Sunday to a statement issued by the National Coal Association at Washington, to the effect that the miners propose to break their war-time agreement by a strike Nov. 1, and to take advantage of a coal shortage to hold up the public for $1,000,000,000.

MINERS PATIENT.

He contended that the war-time agreement was open to a different interpretation than that placed on it by the National Coal Association, and that the miners had shown great patience in waiting for a year after the signing of the armistice to seek an issue on the wage question.

EXAGGERATION.

"The statement that the advance in wages we ask for would mean that the public must pay an additional billion dollars a year for the same amount of coal consumed in previous years is a preposterous exaggeration," Lewis said. "With reform in methods of distribution and curtailment of excess profits by the operators, only a small percentage of the wage increase should show in the added cost to the consumer.

"The average wage of the miner is $5 a day. We are asking for approximately $8 a day, which is the rate in many industries far less hazardous than that of the coal miner."

OPERATORS' REPLY.

The soft coal operators of the Central Competitive Field will submit at this morning's session of the joint conference of operators and miners their reply to the demands of the miners for a 60 per cent increase in pay, a six hour day and five day week. After the reply is read it is probable the miners will ask for an adjournment to consider it.

No inkling of its contents was known outside operators' circles.

HOW TO MAKE THE MOST OF LEFT-OVER BREAD CRUMBS

BY BIDDY BYE

Every ounce of food wasted means money thrown away

So save your breadcrumbs

Dried breadcrumbs can be used as the foundation of many delicious and nutritious dishes

Breadcrusts, broken bits of muffins all leftovers from the table crumbs from the cutting board should be dried thoroughly by putting them in the oven Care must be taken however not to brown them After they are dried they may be crushed by the rolling pin or an easier method is to run them through the meat grinder

If they have been thoroughly dried they can be kept indefinitely in a wide mouthed crockery jar with a loose lid Such crumbs are excellent for coating croquettes or for covering scalloped dishes

Among numerous worth while bread crumb dishes are the following

MARY'S MEAT PATS

This recipe requires less than one half the usual amount of meat which is a decided advantage with meat prices as they are

2 cupfuls dried bread crumbs
1 cupful finely chopped cooked meat left overs
1 egg
Milk
Salt and pepper

Mix the meat crumbs using salt and pepper according to how highly seasoned the meat was when first cooked Break in the egg (unbeaten) Start final mixing with 1 cup of milk and keep pouring in milk slowly until the mixture is too soft to mould with the hands Drop from a large spoon into a frying pan containing 1-4 inch of hot fat These pats will brown quickly because of the milk they contain Consequently they should be covered until the first side is browned Then remove cover and turn When done they will be crisp on the outside with a soft creamy interior Serve with chopped parsley or tomato gravy

Tomato gravy is easily made by adding 1 2 cup of stewed tomatoes and a little extra thickening to ordinary meat gravy made in the pan in which the pats were fried

STUFFED ONIONS

This makes a very good luncheon dish and may form the main part of the meal

Buttered bread crumbs
Six onions of uniform size
1 cupful of tomato liquid
1 tablespoonful of butter substitute
1 teaspoonful of sugar
Salt and pepper

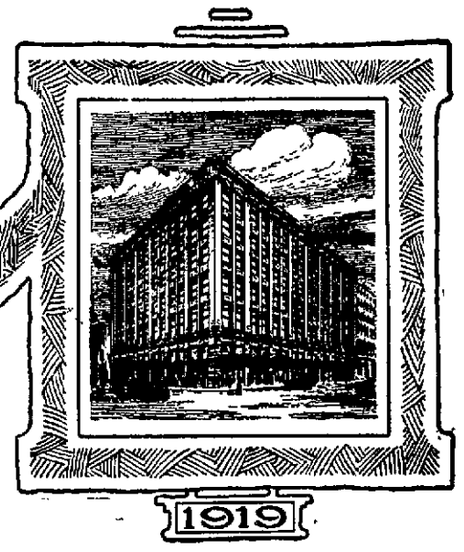
50th ANNIVERSARY AND GOLDEN JUBILEE



1869 1919

An Event Celebrating 50 Years of Progress

Has its opening on Wednesday, October 1st, at 9 A. M.

LOOKING backward, through a half century of business existence, we see, in an unpretentious building in Merchant street, the beginning of a business which, even from the start, held a commanding position in the retail activities of the little town that was Decatur in that day.

Following is progress through the misty aisles of time, we see it consistently keeping pace with the advancement and growth of the city—see it gathering strength and prestige with the passing of the years—a strength and prestige that comes only to the business which is RIGHT in principle and in practice.

Today, after a half century of conscientious endeavor, we see this business brought to a stage of development which is a glowing tribute to the soundness of the rules of conduct which has governed its destinies since its inception.

It is with a strong sense of gratitude that we enter upon this Fiftieth Anniversary celebration. It is gratifying to know that the principles of this store have been proven right by fifty years of growth and advancement. It is gratifying to feel that our success has been due, in large measure, to your recognition of the soundness of our methods and the fairness of our policies.

The Greatest Celebration in the History of This Store.

WE FEEL that such an unusual occasion as this is worthy of an unusual celebration, and it is for this reason that we have arranged this Fiftieth Anniversary and Golden Jubilee on a very elaborate scale.

No expense has been spared to make this the most notable occasion in the merchandising history of Central Illinois. The entire store—both interior and show windows—are, as this is written, being lavishly decorated with gold, symbolic of our Golden Jubilee, combined with the brown of Autumn and the blue of the midnight sky.

The windows, curtained now, will be opened to public view on Tuesday evening. We feel that we have every right to take great pride in urging you to see these displays, for never in the history of this store have they been more beautiful.

A Month of Interesting Features Is Ahead of Us.

MANY attractive Anniversary features have been planned for the entire celebration. A number of good musical programs have been arranged, the exact dates of which will be announced all in good time.

Besides these musical features, there will be special exhibits of the styles of earlier days, as compared with those of today. In this connection we wish to ask every woman who has any of these old styles, which were bought at this store in its earlier days, to kindly permit us to use them, merely for exhibition purposes. No harm will come to them, and they will be returned in as good condition as when they were taken.

Special merchandising features will also be arranged for this Anniversary, thus introducing the element of economy into the celebration. These features will appear from time to time in the regular advertisements of this store.

An Ideal Time To See the New Fall Styles.

IN PLANNING this great Anniversary, we have not lost sight of the fact that mere decorations do not entirely make a celebration.

Our buyers have made extensive preparations for this occasion, and, now, at its threshold, every department is ready with unusually large varieties of the newest fall and winter styles in apparel and accessories.

These displays of the new in merchandise will undoubtedly prove to be one of the chief attractions of this Fiftieth Anniversary and Golden Jubilee.

One Way to Cultivate Smiles That Captivate

"Alas for the pretty girl who, when she opens her mouth in a smile, gives a view of teeth more deplorable than the ruins of the Reims cathedral. Instantly she repels instead of attracting, and she has only the consolation she is in no danger of being kissed," remarks the president of the National Mouth Hygiene Association.

What a pity women generally are not more familiar with this feature of beauty culture. Consider that more than a hundred varieties of micro-organisms are found in the mouth! It is any wonder so many have ugly teeth and gums, unsightly fillings, crowns and artificial teeth? Germs not only cause tooth decay but serious gum affections. Tooth and gum troubles generally can be avoided by regular brushing with Once-a-Week Tooth Polish—because a polished tooth prevents decay, also because this product effectually removes from all teeth the obstinate fatty films under which germs accumulate. And this remarkable Once-a-Week Tooth Polish, which any druggist can supply, completely removes all discolorations, keeping the teeth beautifully white and sparkling.

For Skin Tortures

Don't worry about eczema or other skin troubles. You can have a clear, healthy skin by using Zemo, obtained at any drug store for 35c or extra large bottle at $1.00

Zemo generally removes pimples, blackheads, blotches, eczema and ringworm and makes the skin clear and healthy. Zemo is a clean penetrating, antiseptic liquid, neither sticky nor greasy and stains nothing. It is easily applied and costs a mere trifle for each application. It is always dependable.

Many persons for various reasons cannot install a power washer and so we include in the club the hand power model. All complicated parts are eliminated and the handle swings back and forth in a free and easy manner.

1. It runs so easy that a child twelve years old can operate it.
2. It is almost noiseless.
3. It has a steam tight lid.
4. It will wash one or more pieces equally well.
5. It will not injure the most delicate fabric.
6. It will wash a tub full of clothes in five minutes.

The Reason This Model is So Popular

This machine is equipped with the round circular disc rub board (not pegs) which rubs the clothes just as if you had them on the wash board, the hot soapy water being forced through the garments washes and cleans the clothes perfectly.

The inside of the tub is corrugated and as the large end of the tub is upward, it takes less water and gives you a good chance to get at the contents.

Rev. A. W. Hawkins.

FUND IS COMPLETED FOR HAWKIN'S CHAIR

Naming of a chair at the James Millikin university after Rev. A. M. Hawkins, who for eight years was pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, later a financial agent for the university and one of the leaders in securing the money to meet James Millikin's original offer for endowment for the institution, has been provided for in the completion of a fund of $10,000 in the present campaign for endowment funds, the amount being raised mostly among members of the Second church in memory of Mr. Hawkins.

The movement to raise this fund was started in July by Rev. J. W. McDonald, present pastor of the church, after it had been suggested that members of the church put their gifts to the endowment campaign together in this one fund to be a memorial to Mr Hawkins. The congregation was very much in favor of the idea. Most of the money was raised during the summer but other gifts have been coming in until now the sum has passed the $10,000 mark.

FUND STILL OPEN

As many others, not only in Decatur but in other places where Mr. Hawkins had been pastor or was otherwise known, have signified their desire to contribute to this fund, the fund is being still kept open, and now promoters of the movement will work toward a goal of $10,000 which if secured, would be enough to endow a chair at the university. It is not, however, the intention to push the matter of trying to make the fund reach $40,000.

Much interest has been taken in the project, as there are many friends of Mr Hawkins who wish to honor him in this way.

It was largely through Mr Hawkins' strenuous efforts in the first financial campaign of the university, to meet Mr. Millikin's original offer, that his health broke down

Are You Thinking About This Winter's Cold?

Remember last winter, with coal at $4.50, how you burned money? Remember the bucket after bucket full of coal that was thrown into the yawning mouth of your heating stove or furnace?

Remember—you said the house was as open as a barn and the coal as poor in quality as it was high in price — that you would never go through another winter's discomfort like that again?

Of course you do, but in reality it was neither the house or the coal. It was your heater, for over half of your heat units went out the chimney, extravagantly wasted.

Right now is the time to install a Scovill Air Burner for it will turn your cold, chilly house into a cozy comfortable home, because of its scientific construction.

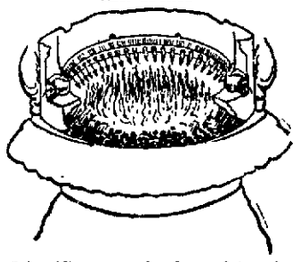
The Scovill Air Burner gives a constant steady heat for it is a controlled fire that cannot run away with itself. It burns several hundred times as much air as it does coal, and generates heat from the smoke, soot and gases that are wasted in other stoves and furnaces.

If there ever was a time when you should make sure that there is no fuel waste in your home, it is this winter, with the high and rising cost of coal.

You can offset this constantly rising price of coal—you can save labor—you can eliminate smoke and soot—you can make your home cozy and comfortable with half the fuel by burning a Scovill Air Burner.

"THE HOUSE OF SCOVILL"

THE SCOVILLE AIR BURNER AIR SPRAY



Scientific research has determine that sixteen cubic feet of air shoul be burned with every pound of coal t get complete combustion. Every ator of coal in the Scovill Air Burner i sprayed with air—a constant stream o air is flowed on the fire, extractin every heat unit out of the smoke, soo and gas, as well as generating th utmost heat out of the coal carbon.

WHITE SOX HAVE MORE EXPERIENCE

Practically Same Line Up As in 1917.

Chicago, Sept. 28. — The Chicago White Sox will have a decided edge on the Cincinnati Reds in the world series in the matter of experience, for, while every regular on the Sox with the exception of Dick Kerr has been through the fire of a championship series, only three members of the Reds—Daubert, Salee and Rariden—have faced the strain of battling for the baseball championship of the world.

Manager "Kid" Gleason will send virtually the same line-up against the Reds which brought the world's championship to Chicago in 1917. About the only change will be that Risberg will play short and Weaver third. In 1917, McMullin played the far corner and Weaver short, Risberg being benched for the titular games. About the only other change will be in the pitching staff and here the veteran Eddie Cicotte probably will bear the brunt of the work with Claude Williams, also a veteran of the 1917 staff running second to him.

MAY BE DARK HORSE.

Kerr, the diminutive left-hander, may prove the dark horse pitcher of the series. He has not had a taste of the world series game, but those close to the doings of the Comiskey aggregation expect to see this youngster hold up his end in the big event To fill in with the pitching, Manager Gleason has Faber who pitched three of the titular games in 1917, but has not been going so well this season. However, this famous pitcher, may prove a surprise to those who have watched his work this season, by going in against the Red aggregation. He has been slow rounding into shape, but wise ones say that Faber will be in there against the Moran clan.

PLAYED IN SERIES.

Manager Pat Moran of the Reds, though he has been through a world series himself, as has Kid Gleason, must rely largely on men who have never faced the test of a short series on which everything depended Jake Daubert played on the Brooklyn pennant winners in 1916, but the big first baseman's record is not very impressive. In the 1916 series Daubert batted only .176, although during the regular season he had hung up a record of better than .300. Sallee and Rariden played with the Giants against the White Sox in 1917. Rariden hit 384 in thirteen times at bat while Sallee in six times up hit .167. With the White Sox regulars, the batting averages were. J. Collins, 286; Liebold, .400; McMullin, .125; E. Collins, .400; Jackson, 304, Felsch, 273, Gandil, .261; Weaver, .333; Schalk, 264; Cicotte, .143; Risberg, .500, Faber, .143.

COLLINS A VETERAN.

The White Sox also boast two players who have been through more than one series. Eddie Collins, generally considered the greatest second baseman in the game, will face the world series hurling for the sixth time when he steps to the plate against Moran's twirlers. Collins was a member of the famous Philadelphia Athletics during four of their pennant-winning seasons and played on the Sox in 1917. Eddie Murphy, Gleason's ace in pinch hitting, will go into his fourth series this fall Murphy played with the Athletics during two of their championship years and also was with the Sox two years ago when they won the championship.

WORLD SERIES WILL SWELL U. S. TREASURY

Washington, Sept. 29.—The United States treasury is expecting to benefit at least $18,000 on the world series baseball games. Each purchaser of a ticket will have to pay the customary admission tax of one cent for each ten cents or fraction thereof, which on the basis of last year's attendance will mean enough money to pay the salary of the President for nearly three months Officers of the bureau of internal revenue will go to Cincinnati and Chicago to check up returns.

Brokers, it is believed, will find the business of "scalping" tickets this year at exorbitant prices much less profitable than heretofore, inasmuch as there is a tax of 50 per cent on the excess charge.

GOVERNMENT FOOD WILL COME SOON

Orders Now Being Filled at Warehouses.

RUSHING DELIVERY

No Arrangement for Other Merchandise.

Decatur parcels post orders for government food have now been sent to the warehouses for filling, according to information which has come to Postmaster W. M. Bering within the last few days. The unexpected quantity of such orders has more than swamped the department but it is expected that shipments will soon be made of the goods ordered by Decatur buyers

In a letter to Mr. Bering dated at Washington Saturday the department says:

HURRYING ORDERS

"With reference to your letter of recent date regarding complaints being made about the delay in delivery of surplus army food stuffs you are advised that his matter has already been taken up by the postmaster general with the secretary of war, and army officers are being urged to make every possible effort to complete delivery within the next few days.

"It is regretted that there should have been any cause for complaint but considering the quantity of material to be moved and the limited organization available for that purpose it is to be expected that there must be some delay. I hope that you will impress on your patrons the fact that both the war and post office departments are doing everything in their power to get these goods into the hands of the purchasers at the earliest possible moment."

MANY INQUIRIES

The Decatur postoffice has many inquiries each day in regard to the possibility of Decatur people buying government blankets, shoes and the like through the local office.

Just at present this cannot be done but when the new government store, which has been opened in the big block formerly occupied by Siegel, Cooper & Co., on State street, Chicago, is ready for out-of-town business it is expected that mail order blanks will be provided at the Decatur postoffice for ordering from the stock in the Chicago establishment.

The plans for that store are being rapidly pushed, 2,000 clerks will be employed and millions of dollars worth of government supplies will be offered for sale there.

INTERESTED IN BLANKETS

Interest among Decatur women seems to be centered very largely on the blankets which the government has for sale and many inquiries are made at the Decatur post office regarding them

It is not expected that these lines of merchandise will be offered directly for sale here but that facilities will be made for their purchase by mail order from the government Chicago store when it is open for business.

AND SHE COULD SING.

Adelina Patti has died in Wales at the age of 76 years. She leaves an estate of $3,000,000.

Old timers insist Patti was the greatest of all the singers. Most of us never heard the woman, but the testimony of the honest neighbors, most of whom had never heard her, was that she was easily the first of all songbirds.

In support of this it is told she made more money than any other singer. She reached to the point where she got $5,000 for a single evening's concert, and they had to put the money in her hand before she would sing a note. This means she was a great business woman as well as the first of all singers.

In her day you could hear her for something like $5. You never heard of anybody who complained he didn't get his money's worth Some folks went a second and a third time These folks were not sports; they were establishing for themselves reputations as connoisseurs in the delicate shadings of the highest musical art.

For $5 counted in those days; and when you spent as much money in a single evening you had to get something big to show for it.

WAS PRETTY SURE TO COME

And so the railroad men of England have gone on strike, probably all of them. One wonders why.

Those railroad men have friends of their own at court, friends who can be depended on to stretch a point hard to give the men all that is possible, to throw in a little for good measure.

And yet the arrangement does not work The men demand more than the friends can possibly get for them more than there is in the game to give. But the men insist, and so the big strike is on

Lloyd George, as good a friend as workingmen ever had, is puzzled and unable to get a clear line on the situation He says something about somebody exploiting the "labor organizations of this country for subversive ends"

Others will see little mystery in the thing. These will simply conclude the railroad men asked more, got more; repeated the round and won again, and that they finally went beyond bounds. And the development is natural

NO ONE TO BE HARMED

Some schools in this town need more room for playgrounds First among these are the Gastman, Jackson, Warren and Pugh schools, according to report of those who have looked into the situation

There is some expression of alarm, possibly a little indignation, lest some places be taken that just now are much needed for homes. A man might be disposed to fight if asked through condemnation proceedings to get out of his home, with no other place to go to.

It is in order to remark that members of the board of education are sensible and reasonable people They will not throw a family into the highways in order to get more playground.

There will in time be larger playgrounds for these schools, as there should be; but the folks who have this in charge are fully aware of the housing situation in Decatur. They are not the kind of folks to make any wild breaks. Really there is no call for anybody to be alarmed

WHY WAS BULLITT THERE?

Somebody asks: "What about Lansing and Bullitt? Did Lansing say it to Bullitt?"

Probably Lansing did say something of the kind; it would not be at all unnatural.

You are on a job with a dozen or a hundred other people, a complicated and delicate job that runs through months. In this time you and all the others are pretty sure to make occasional remarks that are not intended to go on the record You are disappointed in some development, and then you say something in offhand fashion that you really don't mean

This thing you say should not be repeated out of school. Among men of honor these little remarks by the wayside do not get repeated. If a man tells them on the outside he does not belong in the undertaking

The real question is this "Why was Bullitt ever put on the job?"

BLOODHOUNDS ARE FADED

In Nashville, Tenn., they have what is called a "psychoanalytical detective" The particular specimen who has appeared at Nashville has called on the spiritual world to get evidence against some people he wished to charge with murder.

But we are interested in the name this detective takes to describe himself and his work. "Psychoanalytical" is a big and imposing word. When a detective with that sort of front comes our way how are we to keep out of his way.

Of course we can't. He is too many for us, whether we are guilty or innocent What chance have we against that big word he uses in presenting himself? If he can make himself be taken seriously he will put all the bloodhounds out of business He can tell us who struck Billy Pattersen

A MIRACLE MAN.

Once again Tyrus Cobb finishes the season and leads all the batters of the American league This is something he has done twelve times out of thirteen chances.

He must be a wonder of a man physically And he has a head that works in all compartments, for he is right near the top of the list as a base runner, which calls for quick brain action as well as superior legs.

And he does this turn year after year. Some of them say he is a proud and petted darling. If he is proud he is one man who manages to tote the burden without falling This means he is only more of a miracle

THERE IS A LIMIT

Yes, there is a limit to what a man can do. In the matter of conservation of strength President Wilson was probably 100 per cent He took exercise whenever possible, and for years a high-grade doctor has gone about with him all the time.

And yet Mr. Wilson broke down in his latest swing around the circle. They had him at 100 per cent, but they were working him at 101 per cent It is something that doesn't work out to a satisfactory finish, as any banker or fifth grade schoolboy can tell you.

What we wish to see and note is a man who is 100 per cent fit and who does 99 per cent work So far we have not seen one, perhaps for the reason the world hasn't one But we suspect it is a combination worth trying

WILL THINK BETTER OF IT.

J M U endowment must lag a while longer The reason given for this is that some people who can and should contribute rather handsomely fail to meet our reasonable expectations

Well, these people will not be given up They will have a little more time to think it over While there is life in them perhaps there is hope—at least this is the theory on which solicitors will proceed.

In these matters the man who has must give Each one should come to realize this for himself If those who have won't help the procession must stop; and then it will get headed the other way But this is not that kind of country.

And here is trusting that Mr and Mrs. Sam Ritchie will live for the diamond wedding If Mrs Ritchie can make it, we are ready to bet on Sam being there Down in Tennessee they used to talk of a senator they would have to shoot to get ready for the resurrection; we don't carry firearms here in the Garden Spot

Do you really imagine that this slogan of "Less work and more pay" will do much toward saving the country?

If Dr. Cary T Grayson wishes to learn how to turn the trick, he should consult the expert who accompanies R. C. Augustine on record breaking swings around the circle.

They say that airplanes to carry two people are coming on the market at $4,000 each, so get ready to stand from under

Liberty bonds are reported as advancing in price, but this is what you expected of them.

There are people who are joshing us when they let on that HCL is troubling them.

Sam Gompers ought to know a radical when he sees one in action

TWO MORE TUSCOLA SOLDIERS RETURN

With Pershing and Famous First Division.

Tuscola, Ill., Sept. 29.—Two more Douglas county men have returned to their homes from overseas service within the last few days, both of who saw a lot of hard service covering an extended period of time. They are James Kennedy of this city and Henry W. Whitehead, whose parents lived on a farm southeast of Tuscola at the time the young man left here with a contingent of selective service men.

Mr. Kennedy left the states in the early part of July, 1918, and was in camp only a short time until he was sent overseas, arriving back in the U. S. on the eight of this month. He was attached to what was known as Pershing's regiment returning to the U. S with General Pershing's party This young man was lost track of for several months, his mail failing to connect with him in some manner so that his mother Mrs Julia Kennedy of this city, and her family were almost certain for a time that he had been killed or taken prisoner. He looks fine physically and shows no effects at present of the hard service that he saw

WAS DECORATED.

Young Mr. Whitehead was with the famous fighting First Division and saw twelve months overseas service He wears the badge of a sharpshooter and also wears a French decoration for distinguished service. The service decoration is one that is conferred upon members of organizations that take part in actions where special service is rendered and consists of a braided cord, worn in a coil upon the left shoulder, with a gilded acuale on one end of the cord and hanging down over the left breast The return of these two young men almost completes the list of soldiers from this immediate vicinity, who are to return.

TELLS OF CONFERENCE

Rev. E S Combs of the Tuscola Methodist church, who has returned to this pastorate after having completed a successful year's work by the recent annual conference at Charleston made some interesting statements preceding his sermon on Sunday morning concerning the work of the year just closed. Of this amount the local organization of the Women's Home Missionary Society contributed over $500 and the local organization of the Women's Foreign Missionary society contributed more than $300 Rev Mr Combs expects to leave here the first of this week for a ten days' more of vacation that was granted to him by the official board for the last year and which he had not yet taken As he will be away on next Sunday morning his pulpit will be filled by Rev J M. Goodspeed of this city On account of the township Sunday School convention to be held in the Presbyterian church on next Sunday afternoon and evening, there will be no night service.

Just Folks by Edgar A. Guest

THE AGE OF INK

Swiftly the changes come. Each day
Sees some lost beauty blown away
And some new touch of lovely grace
Come into life to take its place.
The little babe that once we had
One morning woke a roguish lad;
The babe that we had put to bed
Out of our arms and lives had fled.

Frocks vanished from our castle then,
Ne'er to be worn or seen again,
And in his knickerbocker pride
He boasted pockets at each side
And stored them deep with various things—
Stones tops and jacks and colored strings;
Then for a time we claimed the joy
Of calling him our little boy.

Brief was the reign of such a spell.
One morning sounded out a bell,
With tears I saw her brown eyes swim
And knew that it was calling him.
Time, the harsh master of us all,
Was bidding him to heed his call;
This shadow fell across life's pool—
Our boy was on his way to school.

Our little boy! And still we dreamed
For such a little boy he seemed!
And yesterday, with eyes aglow
Like one who has just come to know
Some great and unexpected bliss,
He bounded in, announcing this:
"Oh Dad! Oh Ma! say, what d'you think?
This year we're going to write with ink!"

Here was a change I'd not foreseen,
Another step from what has been
I paused a little while to think
About this older age of ink—
What follows this great step, thought I?
What next shall come as time goes by?
And something said: "His pathway leads Unto the day he'll write with deeds."

About Town

BERT WALLACE, of the Cash Meat market on Merchant street, says that if people would get over the idea that a hog is composed of those choice small lean chops and of that light weight, nicely streaked bacon and would buy some of the other parts of the animal that these particularly choice parts would not be as high as they now are.

Until sausage making time meat dealers have difficulty in selling the other parts of the hogs so as to keep their pork stock fairly well balanced. Unfortunately when a hog is butchered the packer cannot kill only the bacon and chop part of the animal. Shoulder pork and other of the less expensive parts sell more slowly than those for which the higher price is charged.

"THAT'S a very good school parade for a town the size of Decatur," said a returned officer Friday when viewing the Millikin parade.

This officer who has seen wonderful parades in American and European cities and who has been in many towns of both countries, continued in Decatur's praise "Decatur's all right It has everything else that any other city has, except the size. Perhaps not so many amusements, but it is a good progressive town. I was in New York ten days when I returned from overseas and I got awfully tired of that place. Much more tired than I have gotten of Decatur."

"THE enormous sale of bacon and hams being made now shows that the patriotic call to save fats and meats for the people in Europe made last year at this time had a very decisive effect," says A R. Runkel, manager of the local branch of Armour & Co.

"Sales of these particular kinds of meat are exceeding all previous records and are very much in excess of the sales made a year ago when the appeal to save for the allies was being made."

On the other hand the sale of cheese says Mr Runkel, which was encouraged as a substitute for meat then is being maintained at the same high level now. Consumption of cheese by all classes of people seems to have doubled in spite of the extremely high prices

No More Malaria.

"Never hear about malaria out this way any more."

"No," answered Uncle Bill Bottletop. "Malaria gets terribly unpopular when there's nothing to cure it with except quinine."—Washington Star.

Ten Years Ago Today In Decatur

SEPTEMBER 29, 1909

The First Baptist church was considering extending a call to Rev. J. F Mills of Marietta, O.

Drs. E. J. Brown and C M Jack were planning to erect a large office and apartment building in the 100 block W. Prairie.

Jack Herbert, former Decaturite, who had ben managing a ball team at Aberdeen, was suggested as Decatur manager for the next year.

J. T. Tucker sold the Josephus Ash farm of 160 acres southwest of Warrensburg, for $187.50 an acre.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The price of coal was advanced from $2 a ton to $2 25, because of the strike. The demand was greater than the supply.

It was the opening day of the football season. The game was between the high school and the Y. M. C. A, the latter team winning, 5 to 0.

John E. King's drug store was made the place for the advance sale of theater tickets.

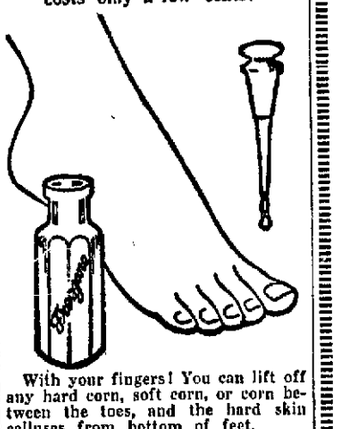
C M. Powers was taking part in the annual tournament of the Piasa Gun Club at Alton.

F. L. Hays was elected president of the 115th Illinois Volunteer infantry.

A two-column cut of Miss Lillian Irwin was printed in the Chicago Tribune because of her trip to New York city to see Dewey

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.



With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!

Very fortunate indeed were we in securing from our storage department a complete 5 room outfit of furniture and household goods that originally were selected from one of the best bungalows of our city.

Goods are in perfect condition and can be bought for less than half their value. Act quick.

Following is a partial list of the goods:

1 walnut four poster bed with chiffonier and dresser to match.

1 mission buffet, dining table and 6 chairs.

1 mission davenport, genuine brown Spanish leather upholstering, library table and rocker and several good rugs.

Do not forget to see us on heating stoves, cook stoves and ranges.

We have plenty and our prices are right.

We also buy, sell or exchange used furniture, rugs, stoves and household goods.

REJECT MAYOR'S NEW ORDINANCE

Was Substitute for Paving Brick Disposal.

E. B. GATES RESIGNS

Sewer Inspector Goes to Staley Co.

Mayor Borchers presented a substitute ordinance for the disposal of materials from streets that are to be repaved at the meeting of the city council Monday morning, but the council refused to adopt the substitute. Mayor Borchers and Commissioner Ruthrauff being the only ones to vote in favor of it.

Mayor Borchers' ordinance provided that the property owner is entitled to the materials in the pavement in front of his property, and that the city reserves that in the street intersections, and if neither property owner nor the city wants the material it goes to the contractor. The only difference between this ordinance and the one presented by Commissioner Montgomery is that under the mayor's ordinance the property owner could dispose of the old bricks in any way he saw fit, while under the other ordinance the property owner could have the bricks for his own use, but must not sell them. This latter ordinance was finally placed on its passage and lays over a week.

OWNS STREETS

Commissioner Montgomery said that he believed that the city had a fee simple title to the streets and was therefore entitled to all of the materials if it wanted them, but if the property owners wanted to use them it would be all right for the city to let them have the old bricks in front of their property.

Corporation Counsel Monroe said that the ownership of the material depends entirely on the manner in which the street is dedicated. In many cases the original owner in laying out a street dedicated it to the city to be used for street purposes, with the stipulation that should the land so dedicated cease to be used for street purposes it reverted back to the property owner. In that case the property owner having paid for the pavement, the material would revert to the property owner if it was torn up to be replaced by another pavement.

MATTES OBJECTS

Commissioner Mattes was opposed to the contractor getting the brick. He said that usually old paved streets were torn up with a steam shovel and the bricks, sand and gravel all dumped into the wagons together, and when the property owner found that he would have to sort out the bricks himself he would just tell the contractor he didn't want to bother with them and the contractor would get the bricks for nothing and profiteer on them.

The amended taxi-cab ordinance was placed on its passage and lays over a week. As amended the fare to be charged to and from depots and hotels and points in the business part of the city is twenty-five cents for each passenger; also a fare of twenty-five cents is to be charged for the first thirteen blocks in any direction; thirty-five cents for each person carried seventeen blocks and fifty cents for each person carried over seventeen blocks, any distance in the city.

NEW WATER MAIN.

The ordinance for the water main in North Church street from the Illinois Central to Garfield avenue, was placed on its passage. The estimated cost is $586.82.

The ordinance was passed for a concrete walk on the north side of Forest avenue from Crea to Boyd street; also an ordinance for a walk on the west side of Graceland avenue from Olive street to the first alley south of Sawyer street.

GATES RESIGNS.

Edward B. Gates, sewer inspector tendered his resignation. It was accepted and he was given a vote of thanks by the council for his efficient work for the city for many years. Mr. Gates goes to the Staley factory at a salary of $150 a month.

The petition of Sangamon Tribe, I. O. R. M., that G. N. Egnor and J. W. Carver be appointed special policemen to keep order at the dances in Red Men hall, was rejected on recommendation of Mayor Borchers and Chief Allen.

Mrs. Lois Ryan Asks Van Praag to Have Place Fixed.

Mrs. Lois R. Ryan, 1716 North College street, tripped over an obstruction in the concrete walk in the 1400 block North Edward street Sunday morning and fell, dislocating her shoulder blade. She was taken to the Decatur and Macon county hospital, but the X-ray operator was out, so she was taken to St. Mary's hospital. While she was being placed on the operating table she made such a muscular exertion that the shoulder blade slipped back into place and an X-ray picture was not necessary. She will be all right in a few days. She sent word to Commissioner Van Praag to have the walk repaired so that no one else will meet with an accident of the same kind.

AT THE CONSERVATORY.

Miss Zorah Miller of Pana, Ill., who won the scholarship in Piano at the Millikin Conservatory at the recent competitive test has made arrangements to reside in Decatur in order to avail herself of the advantages consequent to resident study. Her mother is expected to come to Decatur some time next week to make this city her home.

The elementary department of the Conservatory which was organized at the beginning of the term, met on last Saturday morning for the first time according to its new schedule. The new arrangement of classes promises to prove superior to the previous plans for the Saturday morning classes and it is to be expected that all children in the department will be greatly benefited by the new arrangement.

The music store at the Conservatory has one of the busiest schedules ever experienced by it. Three young women, Misses Mary Keith, Gladys Orr, and Esther Kauffman have charge of this department under the direction of Mr. D. M. Swarthout, and the whole process is orderly and business like.

The unusually heavy enrollment this year has brought about no little trouble to the office in the assignment of practice periods. Arrangements are now under way to provide several more pianos to relieve the present stringency.

Miss Florence Brown, Miss Fredarika Green, assisted by Miss Ruth Brown at the piano, will provide some special numbers for the City Club banquet at the Hotel Orlando Monday evening.

Eugene Simpson, of Taylorville, a musician of considerable reputation and former Leipsic correspondent for the Musical Courier was a Conservatory visitor Monday.

HARRY HANSEN HAS INTERESTING STORY

City Club Speaker to Tell of Fourteen Points.

One or two members of the City club have heard Harry Hansen, member of the staff of the Chicago Daily News who was in Paris as a press correspondent during the peace conference, give his talk on "The Adventures of the Fourteen Points," which he will give before the City club here Tuesday evening after the dinner at the Orlando hotel.

These men report that the talk is intensely interesting and that there is never a dull moment while the newspaper man is telling his story.

ALL THE DETAILS

He tells of the voyage of the fourteen points to Paris and how they developed a strange case of seasickness; how President Wilson buried the balance of power and how Clemenceau called for the pulmotor; building the League of Nations with sidelights as to why certain nations in Europe are not strong for it; story of Fiume and the crisis precipitated by President Wilson in regard to it; receiving the president with flowers and telling him good bye with brickbats, and what the Europeans think of American ideals anyway; the treaty with France; what the Germans wanted and what they got, and what they now think of the fourteen points; these and other interesting phases of the great gathering to set aright the nations are told by Mr. Hansen in an interesting and fascinating way from his own personal observations and experiences.

Reservations indicate that the first evening event of the fall given by the club will be well attended.

WALLACE REID WANTED TO COME

Writes A. Sigfried Letter to That Effect.

A. Sigfried of the Bijou theater has received a letter from Wallace Reid, movie star, denying the assertions made in the Chicago Examiner and re-printed in Decatur that Mr. Reid had slandered Decatur. Mr. Sigfried had arranged with Mr. Reid in the Sherman House, Chicago, to come to Decatur, but was called to New York on important business.

Mr. Reid's letter follows:

Dear Mr. Sigfried:

Am so sorry that I should have been misquoted by the Chicago Examiner.

Would have been only too happy to have made Decatur, but I had to use the reservations I had, or lay over longer than business here at the studio would permit.

Do hope you understand and that at any time I shall be glad to appear for you when traveling your way.

With every good wish,
Sincerely,
WALLACE REID.

DAVID FELMLEY AT ROTARY CLUB

State Normal President Gives Address.

Telling of the great work which the normal schools of the country and particularly what those of the state of Illinois are doing, David Felmley, president of the State Normal school at Normal, spoke of the fact that one of the members of the first class to register on the first day in 1857 that the school was opened was Enoch A. Gastman, later for nearly a half century, superintendent of the Decatur city schools.

HELP TEXAS SUFFERERS.

Over one hundred members of the Rotary club were present at the luncheon Monday noon at the Y. M. C. A. and before President Felmley spoke, Owen Scott, president of the club, called on J. S. McClelland to read a letter from the national officers in Rotary in which it was stated that the Rotary clubs of the country had been called upon to donate $10,000 to the sufferers of the hurricane in Texas and that the quota of the Decatur club was $40. By unanimous vote it was decided to send the amount assigned to this club as its share.

Will Brown read a short history of Rotary and the Teachers' quartet sang two songs which were heartily applauded.

TELLS OF WORK.

During his talk on the normal schools Dr. Felmley told of how the work had grown into a careful study of child nature, how the teachers had come to realize that the development of child mind should be studied as the physician studies the development of the child body. He also spoke of how the study of methods of teaching had been improved and of the fact that the schools or state must give to the teachers the ideals of American life so that they in turn, may impart them to the children.

"Gee, I can feel that bump yet," and he declares that there is still a bald spot on the back of his head where he hit the solid dirt roadway of the West Main street of those early days.

"I suppose I was on that team," said the present chief, "as we used West Main street for a practice ground for the various tournaments to which we often went in those days."

DECLARES STRIKE WILL BE FAILURE

J. D. White Says Most Men Satisfied With Wages.

J. D. White, foreman of the Central Union Telephone Co., visited in Cleveland and other towns where he lived and went to school as a boy last week, and he returns to Decatur with the feeling that the steel strike is bound to fail.

The active strike districts are where the employes are nearly all foreigners, says Mr. White.

"A friend of mine, a man with whom I went to school, is a heater in one of the mills in a town where I visited last week and in reply to my question as to whether or not he would strike, said:

"'Why should I strike? I am making $21.34 a day, not a week, and why should I strike to make Fitzgerald a noted man?'"

And he did not strike. Mr. White said that the "rollers" in the steel mills are making as high as $50 a day and that they will not strike except in mills where the foreign element largely predominates.

PLAY FIRST ROUND IN GOLF TOURNEY

C. A. Morrow Eliminated in Extra Hole Play.

CADWALLADER STAYS

Low Scores Made in Consolation Flight.

Close matches marked the opening round of the first annual municipal golf championship tournament on the Nelson Park course Sunday. The course was busy all day and every match in the opening round was close. C. A. Morrow was eliminated in a 19 hole match with Richardson. This match was played in the rain.

FIRST ROUND.

Sunday's results in the championship flight were:

Cadwallader won from Collet two up and one to play.

Fred Amman won from Montgomery two up and one to play.

Al Freeman was called to Chicago suddenly Saturday night and was forced to forfeit to J. M. Quinlan.

E. V. Houston won from Westerfield two up Saturday.

W. S. Mitvalsky won from George Allen one up.

George Hays won from R. Pensinger seven up, six to play.

E. Treadway won from H. C. Diekhoff four up and two to play.

Richardson won from Morrow one up in 19 holes.

SECOND ROUND.

The second round probably will be played next Sunday morning and the third round in the afternoon. The third round will determine the two contestants for the championship.

The pairings for the second round in the championship flight are as follows:

Cadwallader (12) and Amman (20).

J. M. Quinlan (20) and E. V. Houston (22).

W. S. Mitvalsky (18) and George Hays (21).

E. Tredway (13) and Richardson (14).

Women were on the course Sunday and thus far seven have played qualifying rounds for the women's championship flight. This flight will be medal play, nine holes and will be played about the time that the open championship is decided, therefore the qualifying rounds are still open this week. It is probable that entries will be closed Saturday.

START SALE OF SERIES TICKETS

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Distribution of the tickets for the world's series games to be played in Chicago began at the White Sox park today. There have been more than 100,000 applications for the 18,000 box and reserved seats.

Applicants for seats received in the mail today envelopes containing either their allotment cards or the checks which they sent. Many applications, which were deemed suspicious or were thought to be duplicates because of different names at the same address, were thrown out entirely.

Despite all precautions taken to keep the tickets out of the hands of speculators, several brokers have advertised that they will have tickets for those who will pay the advanced price. Price are quoted nominally at $25 for a set of box seats for the first three games and $20 for a set of three reserved grand stand seats. This is a premium of $8.50 and $10.10 respectively. These prices, the speculators say, will be advanced if the demand is brisk.

There will be approximately 16,500 unreserved seats sold, one to each person, on the day of the first game in Chicago.

COMPLAIN ABOUT BICYCLE RIDERS

Boys Do Not Observe Traffic Rules Rigidly.

Complaint has been made by many automobile drivers of the carelessness of bicycle riders, especially boys. One driver complains that the boys ride on the wrong side of the street and then meeting traffic dart suddenly to one side or the other and many accidents are only narrowly avoided.

One driver reports that he met a boy on the wrong side of the street and the boy in trying to dodge, skidded his wheel and fell in front of the auto. By fast work and application of the brakes the boy was not hurt.

Another boy was noticed riding along wobbling from one side to another and looking and talking to some boys on the sidewalk. An automobile following him made two attempts to keep from running him down and finally had to stop until the boy's attention could be attracted by the tooting of the horn.

BIG INCREASE IN USE OF SUGAR

Weekly Bulletin Says 400,000 Tons Extra Have Been Used

Why sugar is scarce at this time may be partially explained by the figures given in the weekly bulletin of the American Sugar Refining Co. issued last Friday, where it is shown that the increase in consumption of sugar in this country from Jan. 1 to Aug. 31 this year over that of last year is nearly 400,000 tons. According to the figures given by the sugar authorities the increase in consumption has been nearly twenty per cent, the average for every man, woman and child in the country being 61.52 pounds as against 53.31 pounds used in the same period last year.
